DISCOVER. EXPLORE. TASTE.

The Sierra Foothills four distinct seasons, and its range of elevations and landscapes, make it a fertile home for more than forty varieties of wine grapes, ranging from Chardonnay, Merlot, Zinfandel, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, Barbera, Sangiovese, Tempranillo, and Syrah. The grape growers and winemakers here have learned to use the variety that nature gives them, combined with premier winemaking techniques, to create some of California's finest wines.

TASTE
Like much of Northern California, the area has a classic Mediterranean climate, with warm summers and rainy winters that often include snow in higher elevations. The region is a relatively new star in California wine country, but it is a century old destination for people who want to visit the heart of the state's Gold Rush area.

EXPLORE
Here you will find something for everyone, including boutique shopping, Victorian houses, friendly pubs, and an array of wine tasting rooms that range in style from charming country, to elegant and modern. In addition to the area's famous holiday celebrations, you can also enjoy farmers markets, parades and festivals. Just outside these towns are some of California's most beautiful foothills, with thick forests, rolling valleys, lively rivers and vineyards that rise and fall over the country landscape. Along your way, enjoy winery tastings and tours, visit historic gold mines and state parks, or play outdoors with activities like horseback riding, hiking, golfing, biking, kayaking, or rafting along the Yuba River.

EVENTS
These wineries put on a range of area-wide events throughout the year that give you a real sense of what's so special about the Sierra Vintners wine region. Be sure and check the website for updated information at www.sierravintners.com
